

The Pearl South Pacific - Fiji with a difference

Refresh, relax and indulge in the excellent facilities and consummate service that is The Pearl South Pacific, an elegant stylish resort located in Pacific Harbour, halfway between Nadi and Suva.

Set on one of Fiji's longest beaches and surrounded by lush tropical gardens, The Pearl is an idyllic boutique escape where chic accommodation, exquisite cuisine and as much - or as little - adventure and relaxation as you want, awaits you.

Play a round of golf at the resorts Robert Trent Jones Junior designed 18 hole championship golf course, one of Fiji's most adventurous courses.

For the adventure seekers, The Pearl South Pacific offers white water rafting, game fishing, diving with sharks, snorkelling and surfing at Frigate's Passage.

For culture vultures, the Arts Village & Cultural centre, just five minutes from the hotel offers some of Fiji's best cultural shows with traditional arts and craft shops, boutiques and cafes.

Or just relax by the swimming pool, indulge yourself at the new Pearl Day Spa, enjoy an afternoon of jazz at the Sunday Jazz barbecue, and enjoy the fabulous cuisine and cocktails on offer at one of the resorts four restaurants and six bars.

The Aitutaki Lagoon Resort and Spa is an intimate resort that offers the Cook Islands' only Overwater Bungalows, a quintessentially Polynesian experience complete with thatched roof, pandanus-lined walls, beautiful appointments, a refreshing open-air shower, and direct access to the inviting lagoon waters.

Steps meander directly down to the inviting waters of Aitutaki Lagoon from your Overwater Bungalow verandah. After a refreshing swim, rinse off under the outdoor shower on the lower deck hovering above the lagoon, then soak up the sun on one of the verandah loungers on the upper deck.
